Part B:

I read a storybook about Kelly who was in the library yesterday.

Kelly moved to a new village. She had no friends there. One day, she saw a house near the river. Inside the house, she met some people and animals. They were strange but interesting. Kelly became good friends with them. She went there every day after school.

This is a fantastic story about love and caring for others. I felt touched and amused. If I were Kelly, I would be more active to make new friends.
